

Ian Sawyer. I am a retired secondary school teacher, having lived in the area for over 40 years, and both my sons went to Booth Wood. A lifelong sports fan (more watching than participating now), I am also into music, and I attend Thorpe Acre church.